

Please allow us the consumers to continue enjoying xm-radio's level of service. This type of revolutionary broadcasting has been helpful to all of us who travel for work and allows me to check weather patterns and important news. With so many important issues facing our country, why is xm's programming so worht fighting against???Please concentrate in matters that truly affect our families and allow this decent freedom of speech exist...